ORDER FORM

PREFACE

This edition of the Catalogue lists ABS printed publications and other standard products released between 1 January 1989 and 31 December 1992 and those expected to be released during 1993. The Catalogue also provides brief descriptions (abstracts) of the contents of these products.

The Catalogue includes information on standard releases other than by printed publication, e.g. on magnetic tape, microfiche, floppy disk and CD–ROM, and through PC Ausstats and Telecom's Keylink Service (Telestats).

The Introduction gives detailed advice on how to use the Catalogue, and provides an overview of the types of product and service available from the ABS.

Publications and products are separated into two parts — national products in Part 2 followed by State and Territory products in Part 3. Within each part, entries are arranged in strict numerical sequence. An alphabetic list of titles is also included in the coloured pages of the Catalogue together with lists of non-printed products, information papers, occasional papers, features articles, directories and catalogues.

The comprehensive Subject Index also comprises a prefatory page of information to assist in its use.

Suggestions for improvements to the Catalogue, or requests for information on matters not itemised in detail (i.e. special interest and unpublished statistics), should be directed to Information Services in any ABS office. The addresses are shown on the back cover.

INTRODUCTION

The Australian Bureau of Statistics is the official statistical organisation for Commonwealth and State Governments. Its main function is to provide the government and the community with an efficient, user-oriented national statistical service.

Currently the ABS publishes approximately 500 individual statistical titles each year.

THE CATALOGUE OF PUBLICATIONS AND PRODUCTS

The Catalogue of Publications and Products 1993 refers to publications and products which the Australian Bureau of Statistics have issued since 1 January 1989 or expect to release during 1993. In certain cases, for example where they form an integral part of a current series, information on earlier issues has been included.

The Catalogue is divided into four parts.

Part 1 — Services

Describes the variety and availability of services and unpublished statistics.

Part 2 — National products

A list of national publications and products arranged in strict numerical sequence with abstracts and other reference information. Note that in addition to the State and Territory specific products listed in Part 3, most national products contain separate statistics for States and Territories as components of Australian totals.

Part 3 — State and Territory products

A list of State publications and products arranged in strict numerical sequence. These entries include abstracts and other reference information.

Part 4 — Indexes

This Part is divided into separate lists —

Directories and Catalogues

A comprehensive listing of directories and catalogues issued by the ABS on particular topics. An index of those currently available or expected to be released during 1993 can be found on page 334.

Information Papers

This index contains a listing of Information Papers produced by the ABS on the availability, collection and format of statistics. These are listed on pages 335 to 336.

Occasional Papers

Occasional Papers are prepared by individual ABS officers and provide accounts of ABS development or research work and analyses of an experimental nature. These papers are listed on page 336.

Feature Articles

A list of Feature Articles which have been published in ABS bulletins since 1 January 1989 is included on pages 337 to 341. Feature articles appear in some publications frequently and in others only occasionally. They examine statistical issues of particular interest or complexity in a more detailed manner than would normally be warranted.

Releases by Medium

A number of releases are available from the ABS on magnetic tape, cartridge, floppy disk, microfiche or CD-ROM. Indexes to each format can be found on pages 342 to 355.

1991 Census Products

This index comprises a complete list of 1991 Census products. It appears on pages 357 to 362.

Titles Index

This index comprises a complete list of publication and product titles in alphabetic order. It appears on pages 363 to 395.

Subject Index

This index comprises an introductory page of information followed by alphabetically arranged subject headings. It provides detailed access to ABS published material relevant to various subjects of specific user interest.

For those interested in a particular subject area, e.g. foreign trade, employment, etc., it may be convenient to identify the range of publications from the list of subject groupings in the contents pages, and by this means gain access to all publications within that subject area. On the other hand, users with a more specific interest, e.g. the production of milk and cheese, industrial disputes, etc., may find it convenient to check first the detailed subject index beginning on page 397.

How to obtain publications

Publications Subscription Service

Clients who would like to receive publications on a regular basis should contact the ABS Subscription Service on 008 020 608 toll free from anywhere in Australia. If you already use the subscription service and wish to amend your requirements, please quote your account number (the account number is shown at the top left hand corner of the address label used to dispatch publications). Renewal notices are sent to all subscribers annually for a subscription year commencing on 1 January. Payment for subscriptions is generally required in advance.

Bookshop Sales

ABS Bookshops, located in ABS offices in each capital city (see back cover for addresses), make available all current ABS publications. Clients may visit Bookshops in person or may telephone or fax to order publications. An order form is available as the last page of this Catalogue. Payment should be made in advance by cheque or credit card.

Prices

Prices quoted in the Catalogue are for individual copies and are subject to revision.

Annual subscription rates, which are inclusive of postage and packaging charges, are available on the toll free number 008 020 608.

Copyright

All ABS products are protected by copyright and are subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act 1968. Apart from any use as permitted under the Act, no part of any publication or other product may be reproduced without written permission. Inquiries should be addressed to the Director, Information Consultancy Section, Belconnen ACT 2616, or telephone (06) 252 7422. In all cases the ABS must be acknowledged as the source when reproducing or quoting any part of an ABS publication or other product.

Information on ABS releases

To supplement this Catalogue, clients may keep up-to-date on recent releases by obtaining the monthly publication Publications Issued in [name of month] (1102.0). Releases are also listed in Statistics Weekly (1318.0) and the Publications Advice (1105.0) which is issued Tuesdays and Fridays. The Publications Advice gives the titles of all ABS publications expected to be released in the next few days. The last issue of the Publications Advice in each month also contains a list of main economic indicator publications expected to be released in the forthcoming month, and the planned dates of their release. Details of publications expected to be released in the next few days are also available on DISCOVERY.

Annual Reports

The Australian Bureau of Statistics Annual Report, 1990-91, 168 pp, reports on the operations of the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

The Australian Statistics Advisory Council Annual Report, 1990-91, 18 pp, outlines the functions and activities of the Council.

Statistics Relating to EEO Groups

References to publications relating to groups specifically designated by the government's Equal Employment Opportunity initiatives can be found in the Subject Index beginning on page 396 under the following headings:

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People
People with Disabilities
People from a Non-English Speaking Background
Women

The following publications may be of particular interest:

1117.0	An Index of Information About Women
2503.0	Australia's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People
4112.0	Overseas Born Australians
4113.0	Australia's Women
4118.0	Disabled and Aged Persons, Australia, Preliminary Results
4120.0	Disability and Handicap, Australia
4121.0	Domestic Care of the Aged
4122.0	Carers of the Handicapped at Home

THE ABS CATALOGUE NUMBERING SYSTEM

The system consists of a five digit code.

The first two digits define the subject.

- The first digit defines the broad subject group.
- The second digit specifies the more precise subgroup.

The third and fourth digits are serial numbers which are permanently allocated to publications within categories formed by the first two digits. An allotted number will remain unchanged provided the contents of a publication remain essentially the same.

The fifth digit, after the full stop, represents the State or Territory covered by the statistics. The codes for each State and Territory are:

0	Australia
1	New South Wales
2	Victoria
3	Queensland
4	South Australia
5	Western Australia
6	Tasmania
7	Northern Territory
8	Australian Capital Territory
9	External Territories

Example: ABS Catalogue No. 4206.6

1st digit:	4	=	Social Statistics
2nd digit:	2	=	Education
3rd & 4th digits:	06	=	Serial numbers
5th digit:	6	=	Tasmania

Title of Publication: = Education, Tasmania

1. SERVICES

1. SERVICES

In addition to its wide range of printed publications and other standard products (which are listed in Parts 2 and 3 of this Catalogue), the ABS offers a variety of services most of which offer the provision of customised products.

Information Sheets

Information about the scope of each service, ordering arrangements and prices is set out on information sheets relating to individual services. These sheets are available on request by contacting Information Services at the ABS office in any capital city (see addresses on the back cover) and quoting the catalogue number of the service.

CENTRAL INFORMATION SERVICE

The Central Information Service can supply statistical information in a variety of ways including: over the counter, by telephone, by correspondence, by subscription, by facsimile and by photocopying printed material.

Telephone inquiries to the Central Information Service are filtered through a telephone queueing system: inquiries which can be serviced quickly are answered immediately; inquiries which are more complex are referred to the Information Consultancy Service.

Information Consultancy Service

The Information Consultancy Service provides a personalised service to meet the more complex information needs of clients. Information consultants have access to all statistical information within the Bureau, including population census and demographic aggregates, industry, business and financial information, and detailed information which may not be included in our regular publications. Specialised information needs can be met by tailored compilations.

For further information, please contact Information Services at the ABS office in any capital city. Addresses and telephone numbers are listed on the back cover.

Dial-a-Statistic

Telephone calls to 0055 26400 gain access to recorded messages providing the latest available data on the Consumer Price Index, National Accounts, Balance of Payments, Labour Force, Average Weekly Earnings, and Estimated Resident Population. All information is updated as soon as possible after release of the latest figures. This is a 24 hour,365 days per year service.

NOTE: Service provided by Steadycom Pty Ltd, premium 70c/min.

SUBSCRIPTION AND BOOKSHOP SERVICES

Details of these services are provided in the Introduction on page xi.

STATISTICAL CONSULTANCY SERVICE

The ABS Statistical Consultancy Service provides advice and assistance on statistical methods, primarily to Government departments. Further details are provided in Part 2 on page 34.

ELECTRONIC DISSEMINATION

The ABS has designed a variety of products for use on computers. These provide data on magnetic tape/magnetic cartridge, floppy disk and compact disk. Standard products provided on these media are listed in the indexes in Part 4 and are described in Parts 2 and 3. In addition, the production of customised products can be arranged on request.

Magnetic tape/Magnetic cartridge

A wide range of magnetic tape/magnetic cartridge products is available, especially in the fields of population census, foreign trade and agriculture.

Floppy disk

Of particular note is the TimeStats Service, from which clients can request the specific time series that meet their needs from a range of over 90,000 economic and social time series.

CD–ROM products

These products provide very large databases in a form suitable for access by microcomputer. Topics covered by current ABS CD–ROM products include Population Census, Retail Census and the Agricultural Census.

On-line electronic services

Data are also available from on–line services (currently PC Ausstats, DISCOVERY and PC Telestats). Descriptions of these are provided in Part 2 of this publication under the Catalogue Numbers 1401.0, 1402.0 and 1403.0.

For further information on any of these products, please contact the Electronic Dissemination unit on (06) 252 6684.

MICROFICHE SERVICE

Standard products available on microfiche are listed in the indexes in Part 4 of this Catalogue.

These products include:

- The Historical Microfiche Series – statistical publications released by Central Office between 1901 and 1984 are listed in the Catalogue of Historical Microfiche Series: Statistical Publications, 1901 to 1984 (1121.0);

- The Colonial Microfiche Series – statistics collected by the six State and Colonial statistical bureaus from 1804 to 1901 are listed in the Colonial Microfiche: Catalogue of Australian Statistical Publications, 1804 to 1901 (1115.0).

In addition, a range of special interest products is available on microfiche, especially relating to foreign trade and population census statistics. For further details, please telephone the Microfiche unit on (06) 252 6161.

BUSINESS REGISTER SERVICES

The ABS can supply counts of business management units and their locations cross-classified by employment size, industry, geographic area or type of legal organisation (e.g. sole proprietor, state government, etc.). This information can be supplied as either a standard or customised table. Information about individual businesses cannot be disclosed.

The Business Register can also be used to provide a 'mailout' service, provided certain conditions are met. This service involves the dispatch of statistical questionnaires prepared by the client organisation to all businesses with specified characteristics.

For further information, phone Marketing and Information, Business Register Section on (06) 252 5911.

LIBRARY SERVICES

There is a library in the ABS office of each capital city. These libraries hold a wide range of statistical material from Australian, international and other statistical agencies, and other material on subjects relevant to the Bureau's activities. Access to these holdings is presently free.

Library Consultancy Service

Professional librarians are available to handle queries in the field of historical and international statistics. A fee is charged for this service.

TRAINING SERVICES

The ABS conducts a variety of in-house training and development sessions for its own staff, mainly in relation to statistical techniques and methodology, national economic and social statistics, selected mainframe and micro-computing applications, management development, office skills, interpersonal skills and general personnel development. Attendance by persons from other organisations can be arranged in most cases. Training sessions conducted in the host organisation may also be possible.

For further details, phone the Director, Personnel Development Section on (06) 252 5365, or the Manager, Technology Training on (06) 252 7217.

OTHER SERVICES

A small number of services have been given catalogue numbers and are listed in Parts 2 and 3 of the Catalogue. Those which are not specific to a subject area include:

1330.(State) Schools Packages (Selected ABS publications and products relevant to secondary school studies)

1331.(State) 4-SITE Consultancy Service (Designed primarily to provide small area data of interest to businesses)

1501.(State) Statistical Consultancy Service (Provides advice and assistance on statistical methodology)

2. NATIONAL PRODUCTS

Part 2 lists national printed publications and other products. Note that many of these contain statistics at the State and Territory level. However, all State and Territory specific publications and products are now shown in Part 3.

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992, expected to be released in 1993; 232 pp; $20.00; ISBN: 0 642 17310 9

This book discusses the nature, purpose, processes and content of national statistical systems. Beyond its relevance to the work of those involved directly in or with government statistical services, this publication is of potential interest to all who have a concern to be better informed about the nature and state of society. The book sets out to deal with the topic of national statistical systems in a general and comparative way from a broad experience with national and international agencies.

New Issue 1134.0 Directory of Industrial Relations Statistics

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 20 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 18169 1

Brings together details of information available from some 14 different ABS collections which address issues relating to industrial relations. It provides users with a reference guide enabling them to quickly locate statistical needs associated with industrial relations issues.

New Issue 1136.0 A Directory of Education and Training Statistics

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 80 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 18099 7

A Directory of ABS statistics related directly, or indirectly, to education and training in Australia. It provides descriptive information on various data sources, data items available, frequency of collections, publications produced, and any reliability or confidentiality provisions.

NOTE: For further information on availability of related data, or to obtain your complimentary copy of this directory, phone (06) 252 7798.

12: CLASSIFICATIONS AND WORK MANUALS

1201.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 1 — The Classification

Irregular; first issue: 1969; latest issue: 1983; 509 pp; $25.00

Replaced by: 1292.0

The ASIC is designed primarily as a system for classifying establishments, e.g. individual mines, factories or shops by industry. It may also be used for classifying other statistical units such as enterprises. Volume 1 of the ASIC presents the detailed classification and defines each industry class identified in it. The broader industry categories in the ASIC, i.e. the groups, subdivisions and divisions, are defined in terms of the industry classes of which they are composed. This volume also describes in some detail the nature, purpose and principles of the classification, the concepts of the statistical units being classified and the methods and criteria for classifying them.

1202.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 2 — Alphabetical Index of Primary Activities

Irregular; first issue: 1969; latest issue: 1983; 198 pp; $15.00

Replaced by: 1293.0

This volume of the ASIC contains a comprehensive alphabetic list of economic activities, showing for each activity the ASIC class in Volume 1 to which it is primary.

1207.0 Australian Standard Commodity Classification (ASCC), Part 1: Introduction, Summary Classification and Commodity Keys

Irregular; first issue: 1975-76; latest issue: 1984-85; looseleaf; $24.00

ASCC facilitates the compilation of comparable Australian commodity statistics of imports, exports and production and serves as the framework for maintaining and improving the comparability and usefulness of commodity items in ABS statistical series. Part 1 of the classification manual provides a detailed explanation of the classification and presents standard (i.e. ASCC) items under industry of origin headings which constitute the broad structure of the classification. The separate commodity keys in this part link existing production, tariff, import and export commodity items to ASCC items.

1208.0 Australian Standard Commodity Classification (ASCC), Part 2: Detailed Classification

Irregular; first issue: 1977-78; latest issue: 1984-85; looseleaf; $74.00

This part of the classification manual shows for each ASCC item the production, import and export items of which it is composed.

1210.0 Australian Transport Freight Commodity Classification (ATFCC) and Australian Pack Classification (APC)

Irregular; first issue: 1981-82; latest issue: 1990-91, expected to be released in 1993; $25.50; ISBN: 0 642 17296 X

Previously: Australian Transport Freight Commodity Classification (ATFCC) and Interim Australian Pack Classification (APC)

The ATFCC and the APC are two transport related classifications designed to enable goods transported to, from and within Australia by sea, air, rail, road or pipeline to be classified in a consistent and standardised manner. The ATFCC classifies goods carried by type of commodity while the APC classifies cargo by its pack characteristics, e.g. 'in bulk' or 'containerised'.

Discont'd 1212.0 Standardised Local Government Finance Statistics – User Manual

Annual; first issue: June 1983; final issue: September 1989; 87 pp; price on application; ISSN: 1031-7546

Detailed standardised local government finance statistics are available for all local government authorities in the six States and the Northern Territory.

NOTE: The data are available on microfiche (see 1212.1 to 1212.7) and magnetic tape (see 1219.1 to 1219.7).

1216.0 Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC)

Irregular; first issue: June 1985; latest issue: July 1993, expected to be released in 1993; looseleaf; $76.50; ISBN: 0 642 16055 4

The ASGC is the main Australia-wide area classification and coding scheme for use in classifying statistics by geographical areas. It is kept up-to-date by the issue of replacement pages annually. The 1991 ASGC is a completely new edition and provides details of the geographical areas used for the dissemination of data from the 1991 Census of Population and Housing.

1217.0 Classification Manual for Government Finance Statistics, Australia

Irregular; first issue: 1984; latest issue: 1989; 207 pp; $22.50; ISBN: 0 642 14764 7

A detailed description of the main classifications used to compile Australian Government financial statistics.

1218.0 Standard Institutional Sector Classification of Australia (SISCA)

Irregular; first issue: 1987; latest issue: 1992, expected to be released in 1993; 36 pp; $10.00; ISBN: 0 642 17239 0

SISCA is a system for classifying institutional units, i.e. enterprises and households, into broad economic sectors for national accounts and related statistics. It also defines the Australian public sector for statistical purposes.

1221.0 Information Paper: ASCO — Australian Standard Classification of Occupations

Irregular; first issue: 1986; latest issue: April 1991; 23 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 15311 6

Gives a brief summary of the development of ASCO, describes the purpose and contents of the various ASCO publications, and indicates plans for the further development and revision of the classification and its associated coding systems. It also contains order forms for most ASCO products.

1222.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Statistical Classification (First Edition)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1986; 372 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 17026 6

Comprises an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, structure, definitions of major, minor and unit groups, and a Keyword Index of Structure Titles. The latter is intended as an index to the classification and is not designed for coding purposes (see 1225.0 and 1227.0). The primary purpose of the Statistical Classification is to aid the interpretation of ABS occupation statistics. It is also a necessary reference document for unit group level coding as defined in the ASCO Manual Coding System: Unit Group Level (1225.0).

1223.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Occupation Definitions (First Edition)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; 501 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 14861 9

Defines and describes the 1,079 categories at the most detailed level of ASCO, the occupation level (6-digit codes). A companion volume to the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0), it is intended for those who require detailed occupational information. It is a necessary reference document for occupation level coding as defined in the ASCO Manual Coding System: Occupation Level (1227.0).

1224.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Expert Coding System: Unit Group Level, Version 5.0 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $500.00; ISBN: 0 642 18177 2

ASCO Expert: Unit Group Level is a computer-assisted coding system which allows the coding of occupation responses to the 4-digit level of the ASCO. The system facilitates the fast, consistent and accurate coding of occupation responses. ASCO Expert: Unit Group Level is a floppy disk-based system for IBM or compatible microcomputers and is available on an annual lease basis for $500.00 per copy. Discounts apply for multiple copies.

NOTE: For further information, please telephone the ASCO Hotline on (06) 252 5757.

1225.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Manual Coding System: Unit Group Level

Irregular; first issue: 1987; latest issue: 1992; 419 pp; $30.00; ISBN: 0 642 17214 5

Specifies the procedures and provides the indexes necessary for the accurate coding of occupational information to the 282 categories at the unit group level of ASCO. Its main purpose is to enable users to produce results comparable with those of the ABS. The package includes an overview of the coding system, a Training Guide, a Reference Guide, alphabetical and numerical order indexes, and a guide for resolving queries (those cases which cannot be coded using index matching procedures).

1226.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Expert Coding System: Occupation Level, Version 5.0 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1991; floppy disk; $600.00; ISBN: 0 642 16106 2

ASCO Expert: Occupation Level is a computer-assisted coding system which allows the coding of occupation responses to the 6-digit level of the ASCO. The system facilitates the fast, consistent and accurate coding of occupation responses. ASCO Expert: Occupation Level is a floppy disk-based system for IBM or compatible microcomputers and is available on an annual lease basis for $600.00 per copy. Discounts apply for multiple copies.

NOTE: For further information, please telephone the ASCO Hotline on (06) 252 5757.

New issue

1227.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Manual Coding System: Occupation Level

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 500 pp; $30.60; ISBN: 0 642 17207 2

Specifies the procedures and provides the indexes necessary to code occupation data to the 1,079 categories at the most detailed level of ASCO, the occupation level. Intended for users who wish to assign 6-digit ASCO codes on the basis of relatively detailed information available in personnel management information systems, job vacancy specifications, or responses collected from special purpose statistical collections.

1228.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Keyword Index of Unit Group Tasks

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; 176 pp; $20.00; ISBN: 0 642 15472 4

Contains an index of all major task words used in the unit group definitions in the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0). The keywords are arranged alphabetically and each is followed by a list of all the codes for the unit groups in which that task word occurs. This is followed by the lead statement for that unit group or the relevant extract from the list of primary tasks. Assists users who have detailed information about tasks performed to locate all relevant ASCO unit groups.

New Issue 1229.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Keyword Index to Occupation Definitions

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 494 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 16847 4

Contains an index of selected words used in the ASCO Occupation Definitions (1223.0). The keywords are arranged alphabetically and each is followed by a list containing the code and principal title of every occupation in which the keyword is used. It is useful in finding the correct ASCO definition for an occupation and in determining the appropriate ASCO code when no title, or only an inadequate title, is available.

1230.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC) — Titles and Codes on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1983; floppy disk; $110.00

Contains the same information provided in 1201.0 (1983 edition) but on floppy disk.

1231.0 Standards for Statistical Units (SSU) in Australian Integrated Economic Statistics

Irregular; first issue: 1985; latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 134 pp; $15.00; ISBN: 0 642 18168 3

This document specifies the concepts, standard definitions and working rules for identifying and recording, on the ABS Integrated Register, establishments, enterprises and other classes of statistical units from or about which information is collected by the ABS in its integrated economic censuses and surveys.

1233.0 Australian Harmonized Export Commodity Classification (AHECC)

Irregular; first issue: 1988; latest issue: 1 January 1992; looseleaf; $77.00 (free to authorised exporters); ISBN: 0 644 06598 2

Used in the preparation of export documentation and in the compilation of Australian export statistics. The Classification is arranged in six sections — introduction and explanatory notes; codes, abbreviations and summary of the AHECC; detailed export commodity classification; key of changes between export statistical items; alphabetical index to the AHECC. Replacement pages will be issued as required.

1234.0 Australian National Classification of Offences (ANCO)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1985; 127 pp; $3.80; ISBN: 0 642 18144 6

ANCO contains a classified list of offences with relevant explanatory notes. It has been developed for use in the preparation of statistics by crime and justice agencies in all States and Territories.

1236.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 1 — The Classification on Magnetic Tape

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1983; magnetic tape; $500.00

Replaced by: 1292.0

Contains the same information provided in 1201.0 (1983 edition) but on magnetic tape.

1237.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 1 — The Classification on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1983; floppy disk; $400.00

Replaced by: 1292.0

Contains the same information provided in 1201.0 (1983 edition) but on floppy disk.

1238.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 2 — Alphabetical Index of Primary Activities on Magnetic Tape

Irregular; first issue: 1983; latest issue: 1983; magnetic tape; $350.00

Replaced by: 1293.0

Contains the same information provided in 1202.0 (1983 edition) but on magnetic tape.

1239.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC), Volume 2 — Alphabetical Index of Primary Activities on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1983; latest issue: 1983; floppy disk; $200.00

Replaced by: 1293.0

Contains the same information provided in 1202.0 (1983 edition) but on floppy disk.

1240.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Structural Lists on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1989; latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $60.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the structure of ASCO as published in the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0) together with a complete listing of all titles in the classification, including alternative and specialisation titles.

1241.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Keyword Index of Structure Titles on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1989; latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $80.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the keyword index of structure titles as published in 1222.0. This index contains, in alphabetical order, all major words occurring in ASCO principal, alternative, and specialisation titles. It is not designed for coding purposes.

1242.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Structure and Group Definitions on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $100.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the structure of ASCO and the definitions of the major, minor and unit groups as published in the ASCO Statistical Classification (1222.0).

1243.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Occupation Definitions on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1989; floppy disk; $160.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the ASCO occupation definitions as published in 1223.0.

1245.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Coding Index: Unit Group Level on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1989; latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $60.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the ASCO Coding Index: Unit Group Level (in alphabetical order).

1247.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO) — Coding Index: Occupation Level on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $60.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the ASCO Coding Index: Occupation Level (in alphabetical order).

Discont'd 1251.0 Standardised Local Government Finance Statistics (SLGFS) on CD-ROM

Annual; first and final issue: 1985-86; CD-ROM; price on application

A regional profile product providing detailed standardised local government finance statistics for all local government authorities in the six States and Northern Territory plus SUPERMAP software for retrieval, manipulation, tabulation and mapping for the data. A complete data base and software system packaged on Compact Disk Read Only Memory (CD-ROM). Suitable for use with most MS/DOS microcomputers.

1254.0 Australian Standard Commodity Classification (ASCC) (Revised) — Transportable Goods

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; looseleaf; $85.00; ISBN: 0 642 15547 X

The ASCC classifies domestically produced transportable goods. Links are specified to the Harmonized System, the Standard International Trade Classification and the Australian Standard Industrial Classification. The commodities are those collected in respect of 1989-90.

NOTE: An electronic floppy disk version of the ASCC (1255.0) is also available.

1255.0 Australian Standard Commodity Classification (Revised) — Transportable Goods on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; 2 floppy disks; $300.00

Contains the same information provided in 1254.0 but segmented into a number of files. Selected files are available on request at component prices.

1256.0 Australian Transport Freight Commodity Classification (ATFCC) on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue: 1989-90; latest issue: 1990-91, expected to be released in 1993; floppy disk; $300.00

Contains the same information provided in 1210.0 but on floppy disk.

New Issue 1262.0 ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 200 pp; $30.60; ISBN: 0 642 17237 4

The ABSCQ is a new classification designed to classify post-school educational qualifications by level of attainment and field of study. It was initially developed specifically to classify data on qualifications collected in the 1991 Census of Population and Housing. This publication comprises an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, definitions of the level of attainment categories and of the broad, narrow and detailed field of study categories, and a set of conversion tables which define the relationship between ABSCQ and other relevant classifications. Its primary purpose is to aid the interpretation of ABS statistics on qualifications. Users wishing to code their own qualifications data to the classification should refer to ABS Classification of Qualifications — Manual Coding System (1265.0).

1263.0 Information Paper: ABS Classification of Qualifications (ABSCQ)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 4 pp, free; ISBN: 0 642 17245 5

The paper provides an overview of the ABSCQ. It outlines the conceptual basis of the classification, the reason for its development and its intended use. It also contains information on the classification's relationship to other relevant classifications.

New Issue 1265.0 ABS Classification of Qualifications — Manual Coding System

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 500 pp; $30.60; ISBN: 0 642 17253 6

The system provides coding indexes in alphabetical and numerical order and instructions for their use. Their primary purpose is to assist users in the interpretation of ABS output and enable them to code data to the classification. Coding guidelines and query resolution guidelines, such as those used for the 1991 Census of Population and Housing, will be published along with these indexes.

1269.0 Australian Standard Classification of Countries for Social Statistics (ASCCSS)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; 143 pp; $20.00; ISBN: 0 642 15222 5

Comprises an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, the structure of the classification, alphabetical and numercial order coding indexes and a link between International Organisation for Standardisation (ISO) codes and the classification codes. The classification is intended for use whenever social, demographic and labour statistics are classified by country.

1270.0 Australian Standard Classification of Countries for Social Statistics (ASCCSS) — Version 1.01 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; floppy disk; $70.00

Comprises a machine-readable copy (IBM PC format floppy disk) of the ASCCSS as published in 1269.0.

1276.0 Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC) — Expert Coding System, Version 2.9 on Floppy Disk

Irregular; first issue and latest issue: 1983; floppy disk; $500.00

A lexicon based computer-assisted method for industry coding. This system incorporates the classification detail defined in Australian Standard Industrial Classification, Volume 1 (1201.0).

1281.0 to 1284.0 Australian Standard Classification of Occupations (ASCO), First Edition — Working Draft Cross Index

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1990; floppy disks

A conversion list in machine-readable form (IBM PC format floppy disk) to assist users in finding equivalent codes for Structure A, Structure B and First Edition ASCO Codes.

1281.0 Alphabetical Order on Floppy Disk; $70.00
1282.0 Structure A Code Order on Floppy Disk; $70.00 (Discont'd)
1283.0 Structure B Code Order on Floppy Disk; $70.00 (Discont'd)
1284.0 First Edition Code Order on Floppy Disk; $70.00 (Discont'd)

New Issue 1285.0 Standards for Statistics on Age and Sex

Free; 12 pp; ISBN: 0 642 18163 2

Specifies ABS standards for collection, processing, storage and dissemination of statistics on age and sex. Topics covered include ABS recommended definitions of concepts, classification criteria, code structures, questionnaire modules and output categories. Issues related to these standards are also discussed.

NOTE: This publication was previously listed as Standards for the Collection Processing and Dissemination of Age Statistics (1260.0) and Standards for the Collection, Processing and Dissemination of Gender Statistics (1261.0).

New Issue 1286.0 Standards for Statistics on Family Variables

Price on application

Specifies ABS standards for collection, processing, storage and dissemination of statistics on family type, relationship in household, household type and marital status. Topics covered include ABS recommended definitions of concepts, classification criteria, code structures, questionnaire modules and output categories. Issues related to these standards are also discussed.

New Issue 1287.0 Standards for Statistics on Income

Price on application

Specifies ABS standards for collection, processing, storage and dissemination of statistics on income. Topics covered include ABS recommended definitions of concepts, classification criteria, code structures, questionnaire modules and output categories. Issues related to these standards are also discussed.

1291.0 A Guide to Major ABS Classifications

Irregular; first issue: 1990; latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 32 pp; $10.00; ISBN: 0 642 17257 9

The Guide is intended to provide an overview of the major ABS classifications and assist users wishing to gain a broad understanding of these classifications. This will aid the interpretation and analysis of statistics provided by the ABS. The classifications referred to in the Guide relate to industry, geographical areas of Australia, production and trade commodities, countries, occupations, government finance and offences. In addition to providing a ready description of the nature of these key classifications, the Guide gives details of ABS products that are available to be used in association with the classifications.

New Issue 1292.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 450 pp; $75.00; ISBN: 0 642 17241 2

Replaces: 1201.0

The ANZSIC is to be implemented for all ABS industry classified statistics and is a fundamentally important reference for organisations wishing to interpret these statistics or to compile their own statistics on a comparable basis. The ANZSIC is also to be implemented by the New Zealand Department of Statistics with whom it was jointly developed. This publication presents the detailed classification and defines each industry class identified in it. It also includes concordances with the ASIC, the New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification and the International Standard Industrial Classification of Economic Activities.

New Issue 1293.0 Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC) — Alphabetical Coding Index

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 200 pp; $50.00; ISBN: 0 642 17249 8

Replaces: 1202.0

This publication contains a comprehensive alphabetic list of economic activities, showing for each activity the ANZSIC class to which it is primary.

New Issue 1294.0 Data Editing — An ABS Manual

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992, expected to be released in 1993; looseleaf; price on application; ISBN: 0 642 18080 6

The manual is designed primarily as a guide to data editing for ABS staff. It outlines relevant editing concepts and practices, provides guidelines and describes tools used in the design or review of editing systems. A further objective of the manual is to encourage others to critically examine the role of data editing in collections in order to ensure output of the required quality.

1256.0 Information Paper: Private Dwelling Structure Classification (PDSC)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 2 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 17270 6

Provides details of the ABS PDSC. The Classification has been introduced with the 1990 Survey of Income and Housing Costs and Amenities and the 1991 Census of Population and Housing. The paper gives definitions for each of the classes in the classification and all relevant concepts. It also provides details of the Functional Classification of Buildings. Both Classifications are comparable and details of the concordance are provided in the paper.

1297.0 Australian Standard Research Classification (ASRC)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 150 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 18153 5

This is a compendium of three classifications developed specifically for the compilation of standardised R & D statistics. It comprises classifications for type of activity, field of research and socio-economic objectives.

New Issue 1298.0 Information Paper: Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC)

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 8 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 18082 2

This paper describes the review of the Australian Standard Industrial Classification and the changes made with the introduction of the ANZSIC. It outlines ABS plans for implementation of the ANZSIC in its published statistics and the range of ANZSIC products and services that will be available.

1318.0 Statistics Weekly

Weekly; first issue: 12 October 1989; 12 pp; $4.20; ISSN: 1033-8640

Presents statistical feature articles for each of the week's major releases, together with up-to-date reference tables containing figures for major national and State economic indicators. Details of every publication released during the week and the expected release dates for forthcoming major publications are also provided.

New Issue 1319.0 Housing in Brief, Australia

Annual; first and latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; brochure; $1.00

Condensed information on housing related topics — population and households, dwelling characteristics, housing finance, the housing industry and building statistics.

New Issue 1320.0 Housing, Australia

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1992; 116 pp; $25.00; ISBN: 0 642 17266 8

A compendium source book that brings together a wealth of housing data and presents a history of the issues and policies that have shaped Australian housing since colonial settlement.

Also contains discussion on a wide range of housing related topics, including housing and urban development, public transport, health and welfare, and Commonwealth and State housing arrangements; demographic information such as population growth and distribution, household size and composition and nature of occupancy; housing approvals, commencements, under construction, completed, materials used in house building and their prices; and house prices, affordability and financial issues. An appendix contains detailed statistical tables which include State comparisons and time series.

1321.0 Small Business in Australia

Irregular; first issue: 1983-84 to 1986-87; latest issue: 1993, expected to be released in 1993; 125 pp; $45.00; ISBN: 0 642 13823 0

Contains statistics on the number and employment of small businesses on a national, State, and industry basis. It also contains statistics on bankruptcy, earnings, labour costs, and research and development for small businesses and, where possible, compares these with other businesses. There are also detailed profiles on small and very small businesses in the major industries in the Australian economy.

New Issue 1322.0 Profiles of Australian Business

Two-yearly; first and latest issue: 1992, expected to be released in 1993; 37 pp; $21.40; ISSN: 1036-3785

Contains statistical information extracted from the ABS Business Register. The prime purpose of this Register is to provide a framework for the selection of businesses for ABS economic censuses and surveys but it is also used as a source of counts of businesses by type of industry activity and location. Coverage of the Register is those businesses in Australia, private and public sector, that have employees. The publication tables display summary counts for both business units and locations cross-classified by State, public/private sector, industry and employment size.

NOTE: More detailed information is available on request.

1350.0 Australian Economic Indicators

Monthly; first issue: February 1991; 140 pp; $26.00; ISSN: 1035-865X

A monthly compendium of economic statistics, presenting a statistical summary of recent developments in the Australian economy. Includes comprehensive tables, charts, commentaries, feature articles and technical notes. It is primarily a reference document, providing a broad basis for analysis and research on the Australian economy and includes statistics which can be applied to both macroeconomic and sectoral analyses. The publication begins with a monthly review, followed by statistics under the following headings: National Accounts, International Accounts, Public Sector Accounts, Consumption and Investment, Production, Prices, Labour Force and Demography, Incomes and Labour Costs, Financial Markets, and International Comparisons. The March through January issues generally present the statistics as time series for the last nine years of annual data, and for the last nine quarters or 15 months of data. The February issue contains longer time series.

1355.0 Socio-Economic Indexes for Areas, Australia

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1986; 7 floppy disks; $2,000.00

Five socio-economic indexes for local government areas, statistical local areas, postcodes and collection districts for Australia on floppy disk. Each index allows testing of specific aspects of socio-economic attributes, such as high or low income, level of education attained or occupation held, housing arrangements and amount of income being received. A fully documented software package facilitates the manipulation of the indexes. Technical details are provided in an Information Paper (1356.0).

NOTE: Information is also available for each State (see 1355.1 to 1355.8).

1356.0 Information Paper: Socio-Economic Indexes for Areas

Irregular; first and latest issue: 1986; 14 pp; $15.00; ISBN: 0 642 15593 3

Contains technical details regarding the production of five socio-economic indexes available from the ABS. The indexes use 1986 Census of Population and Housing data to rank collection districts, local government areas, statistical local areas and postcodes by summarising a range of socio-economic attributes. The indexes are Urban and Rural Indexes of Relative Socio-Economic Advantage, Index of Relative Disadvantage, Index of Economic Resources and Education/Occupation Index. Examples of variables used are income at household and family levels, types of occupation held, level of education attained and housing arrangements.

2520.0 Census 86 — CDATA86 Consultancy, Central Office

Price on application

This service enables clients to obtain customised tables and/or maps by drawing on data items from the 1981, 1986 and 1991 Censuses of Population and Housing. Clients can obtain maps and tables displaying numbers, proportions, or averages derived from one or more cells from standard census formats. Maps can be produced with up to ten colours, and labels as required. Before clients request maps, it is advisable that they consider the appropriate scale of area to be mapped and the geographic units involved, as maps are restricted to an A4 size. An estimate of costs can be provided after consultation with Information Consultancy staff in your local ABS office. Prices vary considerably depending on the complexity of each request.

2522.0 CDATA86 — Census of Population and Housing: Summary Data on CD-ROM

Price: $5,500.00; CD-ROM

Offers population census summary data for collection district, census division, statistical division, statistical and legal local government area, statistical district, postcode area, Commonwealth and State electoral division, statistical region, and urban centres. SUPERMAP software to enable retrieval, manipulation, tabulation and mapping of the data is provided as an integral part of the product. 54 topics, ranging from the number and age of Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders to weekly rent by structure of dwelling, are covered in detail. CDATA86 is packaged on Compact Disk Read Only Memory (CD-ROM) and is a complete data storage and retrieval system for use on most MS/DOS microcomputers.

2721.0 1991 Census — CDATA91

Price on application; CD-ROM

CDATA91 is a CD-ROM product that will allow desktop analysis of 1991 Census data for small areas. CDATA91 contains Community Profile data (including the 1981/86/91 Time Series Profile at SLA level), digitised statistical boundaries and basic digitised topographic data.

There will be a choice of the analysis and presentation software. Enhanced Supermap software, similar to that available in New Zealand, is being further developed for CDATA91. The other choice will be software based on the popular MapInfo product, again further developed the particular needs of CDATA91.

Both software options will have import and export facilities to other PC packages. An optional detailed topographic base (including streets, minor waterways, some post offices, police stations, shopping malls etc) will also be available for both products.

CDATA91 is available at State/Territory and total Australia level for IBM-PC and Apple Mac. CDATA91 with MapInfo is also available on UNIX platforms (HP and Sun Sparc).

2722.0 1991 Census — Community Profiles, Australia

Price on application

Community Profiles comprise census data for all geographic areas, from Collection Districts (CDs) to total Australia. Each Community Profile is a set of tables containing key census characteristics of persons, families and dwellings, covering most topics on the census form.

Explanatory notes and footnotes are included with each Community Profile.

The Basic Community Profile provides 58 tables for all census areas for CD to total Australia, including postcode. The Basic Community Profile replaces the "7 page" small are format released form the 1986 Census of Population and Housing, and contains about 70% more data.

The Expanded Community Profile provides 44 tables and is available for statistical local areas (SLAs) and all other census geographic areas, except for CDs, CD derived Suburbs, postcodes and rural localities. It comprises more detailed versions of some of the basic profile tables, plus some new tables. This replaces the "21 page" format small area data from the 1986 Census of Population and Housing.

The Working Population Profile contains 17 tables of labour force and related data on the characteristics of people who work in SLAs within the journey to work study area — usually capital cities.

The Time Series Community Profile contains approximately 22 tables from the Basic and Expanded Profiles comparing data from the 1981, 1986 and 1991 Census of Population and Housing where the classifications are comparable. It is available for SLAs and aggregates of SLAs.

The Usual Residents Community Profile contains approximately 25 tables based on the usual residents of SLAs.

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People Community Profile contains 29 tables based on the Basic Community Profile. It is available for ATSIC regions and communities, SLAs containing 80 or more Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, sections of State, statistical divisions and States/Territories.

NOTE: Available on a variety of media.

4161.0 to 4170.0 Occasional Paper: Review of Social and Labour Statistics — Overview

Irregular; first and latest issues: 1990; free; data reports

This series of reviews of social and labour statistics was undertaken in order to define ABS future directions in its person/family/household based social and labour statistics, and to clarify the role of ABS in relation to the statistical work of other agencies. Their purpose was to ensure the ABS statistical service remains relevant to the current and evolving needs of its users. Each review describes the subject area in detail and addresses five fundamental questions: The uses of these statistics; the statistical output that is currently available; the unmet demand; and the feasibility and cost to ABS of satisfying this unmet demand. These reviews addressed nine separate subject fields and an overview summarising the results of all reviews is also available.

A regional profile product offering small area commodity data for all States and Territories. Over 1,300 individual statistical local areas, covering all of Australia, can be cross-referenced with any or all of more than 800 agricultural commodity data items collected in the Agricultural Census. The product includes SUPERMAP software for retrieval, manipulation, tabulations and mapping of the data. The data include information on area and production of crops; pastures; livestock numbers; area of crops irrigated and use of fertilisers. A complete data base and soitware product packaged on Compact Disk Read Only Memory (CD-ROM) which is available for both MS/DOS and Windows.

7116.0 AgStats on Magnetic Tape

Annual; first issue: 1976-77; latest issue: 1992, expected to be released in 1993; $2,500.00

Previously: Agricultural Data Dissemination Services (ADDS) on Magnetic Tape

A regional profile product offering small area commodity statistics for all States and Territories. Over 1,300 individual statistical local areas, covering all of the Australia, can be cross-referenced with any or all of more than 800 agricultural data items collected in the Agricultural Census. The data include information on area and production of crops; pastures; livestock numbers; area of crops irrigated and use of fertilisers. Suitable for use on most mainframes.

7117.0 AgStats on Floppy Disk

Annual; first issue: 1986-87; latest issue: 1992, expected to be released in 1993; $2,500.00 for new clients, $1,500.00 for existing clients

Previously: Agricultural Data Dissemination Services (ADDS) on Floppy Disk

A regional profile product offering small area commodity statistics for all States and Territories. Over 1,300 individual statistical local areas, covering all of the Australia, can be cross-referenced with any or all of more than 800 agricultural data items collected in the Agricultural Census. The data include information on area and production of crops; pastures; livestock numbers; area of crops irrigated and use of fertilisers. Suitable for use on most mainframes.

NOTE: Data are available for each State separately on request.

7118.0 AgStats on Microfiche

Annual; first issue: 1976-77; latest issue: 1992, expected to be released in 1993; $750.00

Previously: Agricultural Data Dissemination Services (ADDS) on Microfiche

A regional profile product offering small area commodity statistics for all States and Territories. Over 1,300 individual statistical local areas, covering all of the Australia, can be cross-referenced with any or all of more than 800 agricultural data items collected in the Agricultural Census. The data include information on area and production of crops; pastures; livestock numbers; area of crops irrigated and use of fertilisers. Data are available for commodity by area, and area by commodity and can be purchased by State on request.

NOTE: Data are available for each State separately on request.

7119.0 AgStats Manual

Annual; first issue: 1976-77; latest issue: 1991-92, expected to be released in 1993; looseleaf; $21.40

Previously: Agricultural Data Dissemination Services (ADDS) Manual

Contains information on data collected, commodity and area classifications. Also provides information on four media types (i.e. magnetic tape, microfiche, floppy disk and compact disk) on which the data are released.

NOTE: The manual is free if the compact disk (7115.0), magnetic tape (7116.0), full set of floppy disks (7117.0) or microfiche (7118.0) are purchased.

8113.0 Integrated Economic Censuses, Enterprise Statistics Data on Magnetic Tape, Australia

Annual; first issue: 1982-83; final issue: 1986-87; magnetic tape; price on application

The tapes contain data for enterprises predominantly engaged in mining (except services to mining) and manufacturing, and which operated for the whole of the relevant financial year. To create the tapes, individual enterprise records are ranked in descending order of turnover within industry class. Groups of at least four enterprises are then created to preserve confidentiality and the aggregated unit data (for a number of different data items, e.g. turnover, opening and closing stocks, purchases and selected expenses, rent and leasing expenses, capital expenditure, employment and wages and salaries) are compiled for each group of enterprises.

NOTE: Recent data available on request.

Absorbs: 8219.0

Indexes of gross product at constant prices for the industrial sector and each of its major component industries (i.e. mining, manufacturing, and electricity, gas and water). Also contains indexes for individual manufacturing subdivisions. Indexes are presented for original, seasonally adjusted and trend estimates.

Discont'd 8130.0 Information Paper: Business Register — Recent Developments

Irregular; first and final issue: 1991; 6 pp; free; ISBN: 0 642 16103 8

The majority of major economic censuses and surveys conducted by the ABS use the Business Register, which carries information on the structure of each business, address and contact information, industry classification and historical employment data. This paper provides an overview of the Register, the major elements of a major upgrade program and the impact of recent developments. In brief, the developments resulted in improvements in the quality of statistical series whose population frames are drawn from the Register, reductions in the reporting load on businesses but also resulted in a short term decrease in the reliability of some series. The size and significance of, and the series affected by, these changes are also discussed.

New Issue 8131.0 Business Register — Location Count Tabulation Service

Price on application; hardcopy report or floppy disk

The Business Register ISAT facility enables counts of business locations, as recorded on the ABS's Business Register, to be output in the form of tables tailored to a client's specific needs. Location counts are classified by employment size, industry (Australian Standard Industrial Classification) and geographic area (Australian Standard Geographic Classification).

SUBJECT INDEX

This index is designed to assist in determining which ABS publications and products are relevant to various subjects of specific user interest.

Subject headings are followed by the catalogue number of relevant products.

Main reference sources for individual products are flagged with an asterisk.

Page numbers are shown in parentheses (e.g. 6204.0(190)).

Note that Information Papers, Occasional Papers and Features Articles are separately identified in this index. In the case of entries for Feature Articles, users should refer to the listing on pages 337 to 341 to identify the specific issue of the source publication.

Most publications issued by Central Office contain separate statistics for States and Territories as components of Australian totals. In addition, more detailed State specific data are released in a number of publications. These have a fifth digit representing the State or Territory covered by the data. The digits are as follows:

0	Australia
1	New South Wales
2	Victoria
3	Queensland
4	South Australia
5	Western Australia
6	Tasmania
7	Northern Territory
8	Australian Capital Territories
9	External Territories

While the most significant references for Australian and State Year Books (1300.0 to 1301.6) and Pocket Year Books (1302.0 to 1402.6) are given in this index, each of these publications contains a more detailed index of its own.

The index is not intended as a comprehensive index of the commodities, industries or geographic areas covered in the statistics.

NOTE: For an overview of the range of subjects on which ABS data are available, users should refer to the Table of Contents and the Introduction to this Catalogue.
